

We learn that some gentlemen of this city, have petitioned the Legislature of our State, asking for a charter for the purpose of organizing an insurance company, to take risks on whisky and whiskey warehouses, and other property. The capital stock will be $500,000—shares, $100.

We are informed that there is a movement on foot, among our enterprising citizens, to petition the Legislature to grant them a charter to organize a building association in Cynthiana. The shares will be worth one hundred dollars, payable quarterly.

We learn from our friend, T. R. Rankin, Esq., that the good people in and about Lair's Station are about to build a turnpike from G. R. Sharp's distillery to Cynthiana, on this side of the river.

We learn also, that a bridge will be built across the river at Lair's immediately.

T. C. T. Delling has commenced building a neat double house, which will be ready for occupation about two months from this date.

On the 21st, in Cynthiana, Mr. Alexander Rutledge, aged sixty-two years, was married to Mrs. Mary Brown, aged fifty years. Forty-one years ago he called at the Clerk's office in Cynthiana, and took out a marriage license, and now he says that in forty-one years more he will call for another license. He will then be one hundred and three years old. That will be his third marriage.

Dr. Barkley, of Leesburg, has an extraordinary pig, which has four ears—two on the top of the head, and two at the usual places for hogs to carry their ears—four tusks—one head—and from the shoulders back it has two distinct bodies, with four hind feet, two tails, and four front feet—two poorly developed and two long ones. The pig lived but a short time.

We understand that the young people of our city are about to give a series of entertainments in the shape of tableaux, &c.

The Benevolent Chapter of Royal Arch Masons, has been removed from Newtown, in Scott county, to Leesburg, Harrison county, where its meetings will be held hereafter. Companion P. Wherret, will install the officers of that Chapter on next Wednesday. Colonel J. T. Ware has been appointed High Priest, by the Grand High Priest of the State, and Colonel Innes, of Fayette, has been appointed King.

The following marriage licenses have been issued by our County Clerk, the past month:
John Fisher to Ann Craig.
J. Dunn to S. J. Highlander.
A. Whewell to S. E. Fryman.
S. Garrett to M. E. Barlow.
J. K. Crain to S. C. Spradling.
J. W. Penn to S. J. Furnish.
S. Rutledge to M. Brown.
L. N. Hill to L. A. Slade.
M. Lanan to E. Heher.
J. A. Mouson to M. Terry.

We are pleased to learn from his friends in this city, that Thomas Wherret, had reached Shreveport, Louisiana, in safety. For three or four days it was believed that he had shipped on board one of those ill-fated steamers which left New Orleans, and which was with all on board destroyed and lost.

STATE NEWS.
The Boyle wheat crop looks well.
"Elliot" county has been established.

Stanford is repairing her Courthouse.

Tobacco is arriving freely in Owensboro.

Glasgow is to have a new tobacco warehouse.

W. B. Victor has been adjudged a lunatic by the court at Carrollton and was ordered to be sent to the asylum at Lexington.

The Ashland distillery of Lexington has made 3,500 barrels of whisky since October, 1868. Thirty-barrels per day is the average amount manufactured.

Times are dull, so 'tis said by some people; but never mind, "There's a good time coming."

A lady friend of ours, informs us that she lost a fine Opal ring, week before last. She values it very highly. The finder will receive a liberal reward at this office, when returned.

Mrs. Judith Russell, of New Bedford, writes: "I have been afflicted with severe prostrating cramps in my limbs, cold feet and hands, and a general disordered system. While visiting some friends in New York, who were using Plantation Bitters, they prevailed upon me to try them. I commenced with a small wine-glass full after each meal. Feeling better by degrees, in a few days I was astonished to find the coldness and cramps had entirely left me, and I could sleep the night through, which I had not done for years. My appetite and strength have also greatly improved by the use of the Plantation Bitters."

MAGNOLIA WATER.—Superior to the best imported German Cologne, and sold at half the price.

"I INTEND TO PAY YOU"—During the Summer of 1862, while Maj. John Shawhan, was camped at Castle Woods, in Southwestern Virginia, just prior to his coming into Kentucky with General Marshall, we made him and his brave battalion a visit. While in camp, one evening, just after roll-call, we were approached by our friend, Private Preston Buzzard, who said that he desired to speak to us, and taking our hand led us some distance from the camp down in a hollow, behind a big tree. Looking steadily for a few seconds in our eye, said: "Capt. Morey, don't I owe you two dollars subscription to the News?" We replied to him that he did. He then said he had agreed to pay it in kind, and that "he intended to do it." Mr. B. served his time faithfully in our army, and proved as good as his word when he returned to his "old Kentucky home"—and has paid us many another subscription since. May he live a thousand years.

OBITUARY.
Mr. Robert Levesque, jr., the subject of this sketch, was a native of Harrison county, and a son of Mr. Samuel Levesque. He had been for many months suffering from that terrible disease, consumption, and breathed his last on the night of the 18th of January, 1889, at the home of his father.

Naturally of an amiable disposition and quite intelligent, he had many warm friends, as the sorrowful countenances of the numerous company gathered at his funeral plainly indicated. He was the first of a family of eleven children to leave the world; and how cheering to the bereaved hearts of the remaining ten to know that their brother has left such bright evidence that his spirit has gone to that land where sickness never enters and where sorrows are unknown. His mother, who died in the triumphs of the Christian's faith, has been for many years an inhabitant of the silent grave. His wife, the object of his early affections, and an infant child, had also gone before him. So that though our brother had to leave dear ones on earth, he has no doubt met dearer ones in heaven. Some six months before his death he had united with the church.

In a conversation which the writer had with him a short time before his death, he expressed such sorrow for sin, such faith in the Savior, and such love for Him, and seemed to have such a clear conception of the plan of salvation through a crucified Redeemer, that I could have no doubts of his proper preparation for death.

That the blessings of our merciful Heavenly Father may rest on all of his friends and relations, and that they may all be prepared to meet him before the great white throne; to enjoy his society and that of all the redeemed forever, is my most earnest prayer. D. W. CASE.

D. A. Givens says his accounts are past due, and his patrons will save him the unpleasant duty of dunning, by coming promptly forward and paying up.

When I Mean To Marry!

BY JOHN C. SAGE.

When do I mean to marry? When 'Tis idle to dispute with fate; But if you choose to hear me tell, Pray, listen while I fix the date.

When daughters haste, with eager feet, A mother's daily toil to share, Can make the puddings which they eat, And mend the stockings which they wear.

When maidens look upon a man, As in himself what they would marry; And not as army soldiers seen, A squire or a commissary.

When gentle ladies, who have got The offer of a lover's hand, Consent to share his "earthly lot," And do not mean his lot of land.

When young mechanics are all wed To find and wed the farmer's girls, Who don't expect to be endowed With rubies, diamonds, gems and pearls.

When wives, in short, shall freely give Their hearts and hands to all their spouses, And live as they were wont to live, Within their sires' one-story houses.

Then, madam—if I'm not too old— Rejoiced to quit this lonely life, I'll brush my beard, cease to scold, And look about me for a wife.

I am selling the best Youngbloodskey Coal at 25c., and Camel at 28c. Delivered by Cart Load. H. D. FRISBEE.

The Rev. F. G. Strahan will preach in the Mount Pleasant Church, next Saturday and Sunday, January 30th and 31st, at 11 o'clock, A.M., each day.

We have just received the second number of that sterling monthly magazine, "Onward." It is one of the handsomest—typographically and otherwise—ever published in the United States. It is filled with the best literature of the day, and is beautifully illustrated; the name of the editor alone—Capt. Mayne Reid—ought to insure it a large circulation. It is published by Carleton, New York. Terms, $3 a year.

The passengers on the Cincinnati Belle were very much frightened the other morning by the discovery of a mad dog in the cabin. The ladies occupied the chairs in a standing posture, while the male passengers chased each other through the boat, with the dog close behind them. Finally the dog ended by the application of a club to the dog's head.

A thrifty Scotchman, describing the extravagances of London related to a friend that he hadn't been there above half a day when "Bang! went six-pence!"

A CARD.

TO THE A. KELLER WHISKY TRADE.

THE KELLER DISTILLERY.—THIS Distillery, in Midway, began operations on Saturday last, and from the parties interested, we feel justified in saying that its brand of Whisky, will stand second to none in Kentucky. Mr. Keller, the proprietor, gives his personal attention and his name to the Distillery; is a son of the well-known Keller of Harrison, probably the most celebrated distiller of his day. The new Distillery is fitted out with the most approved apparatus for making whisky, and although it is too soon to speak of its product from actual experience, yet the reputation of the partner who is now leading us to the Distillery that they will make more than the best—Kentucky Gazette.

We understand that Messrs. HINDE, DRAKE & CO., No. 77 Pearl Street, of this city, are partners in this Distillery, and contracts can be made with them—New York paper.

A. Keller, now deceased, commenced the business of distilling "Bourbon Whisky," near Cynthiana, Harrison county, Ky., in the year 1840, and continued in the business using his own name "A. Keller" as his trade brand up to the year 1861, when he sold his distillery including the "A. Keller" brand, his good will and all apparatus pertaining thereto to J. A. Cook & Co. and said J. A. Cook & Co. manufactured the "A. Keller Bourbon" up to the year 1866, when they sold half of said distillery to T. V. Ashbrook, and since that time the same kind of Bourbon has been manufactured under the firm name of Cook & Ashbrook, and branded "A. Keller." Mr. A. Keller, jr., whom Messrs. Hinde, Drake & Co. have advertised as partner for the purpose of branding their whisky "A. Keller" is a son of A. Keller, sr., and only about 18 years old, and has no experience of distilling of any kind. We understand Messrs. Hinde, Drake & Co. employ A. Keller, jr., upon the following terms: "One thousand dollars per year for three years and to give his personal attention at the distillery two months the first year, three months the second year, and the whole of the third year."

The distillery which Hinde, Drake & Co. advertise as the "Keller Distillery" was formerly the "Balford, Guthrie & Co." and "A. Balford," and is situated at Midway, in Woodford county, 7th District of Kentucky—some thirty miles from the original "A. Keller Distillery."

We insert the above notice to inform our friends and the Bourbon Whisky Trade generally that they may not be deceived in purchasing "A. Keller Bourbon" as it is only manufactured by us near Cynthiana, Harrison county, 6th District Kentucky, and Messrs. Ives, Beecher & Co., of New York city, are our only authorized agents, for the sale of "A. Keller" whisky. COOK & ASHBROOK, Cynthiana, Ky. Jan 23-30

It seems strange that the negroes of our city, should make it convenient to close up the sidewalks, on the Sabbath-day, when ladies and gentlemen are passing on their way to and from church. Mr. Baker, the Marshall, was compelled to force an opening last Sunday so that people could pass.

Mr. Enton.—You published in your excellent paper, last week, a letter from Mr. Frisbie which says that I had circulated a report to the effect that he (Frisbie) had set the car which carried a load of coal for me, down in the mud to injure (me) him. I take this method to say publicly, that I have no recollection of ever uttering such words, and it has been so understood by me to have said as it is said. I have no antipathy whatever towards Mr. Frisbie and have none now. H. ROLLS, Cynthiana, January 26, 1889.

The affair has turned out, that Mr. Bels did not say or utter words, charged against him, or that he has no recollection of such utterances. I will say that my reference to his "ungrateful" is recalled, and that we stand brothers in the court of truth. H. D. FRISBEE.

Exuberant Health. It is a blessing vouchsafed to few. Even those who have been favored by nature with strong constitutions and vigorous frames are apt to neglect the precautions necessary to preserve these precious endowments. Indeed, as a rule, the more healthy and robust a man is, the more liberties he is inclined to take with his own physique. It is some consolation to the naturally weak and feeble to know that they can be so invigorated as to be built up, by a proper use of the means which science has placed at their disposal, as to have a much better chance of a long life and soundness of mind, than the robust and athletic of their fellows, who are foolish enough to suppose themselves invulnerable, and act accordingly.

It is not too much to say that more than half the nation, and the civilized world, need an occasional tonic, to enable them to support the strain upon their bodies and minds, which the fast life of this restless age occasions. In fact, a pure, wholesome, invigorating tonic is the grand desideratum of the busy millions, and they have the article in HINDE'S STOMACH BITTERS. It is a standard medicine, i. e. it imparts permanent strength to weak systems, and cures delicate constitutions. Its reputation and its sales have steadily increased. Competitive preparations have been introduced, and the public are misled by the cheap and nameless in the hope of rivaling it, but they have failed, either in the attempt, or been left far in the rear. It has been the great medical success of the present century, and is a tonic certain, and a proprietary medicine in this country is as widely known, as generally used.

Ten lightning presses, running incessantly (Sundays excepted), the whole year, constantly supply the demand for the Illustrated Almanac, in which the nature and uses of the preparation are set forth, the circulation now being over five millions a year.

CYNTHIANA NEWS.

CYNTHIANA KY., Jan. 28, 1869

LOCAL MATTER.

Having received five per cent discount on the stock purchased from J. W. Lacy, and twenty-five per cent from debts assumed by me from creditors at the river, I am prepared to sell Boots and Shoes, Hats and Caps, and notions, twenty-five per cent cheaper than any other house in Cynthiana. The accounts of the late firm are payable to me only, and each individual will please come forward and settle without further talk.

In reply to a letter addressed to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, by De Long & Harper, distillers of Warsaw, K., the commissioner states that the revenue laws make provision for a deduction of the assessment of the capacity tax against distillers, on account of loss of time caused by accidents to machinery.

Smoking and chewing tobacco of all grades to be had at Jett's.

The Steam boiler belonging to the Distillery of Mr. Taylor, of this county, was displaced accidentally, which has delayed his business.

W. S. Haviland, real estate agent in this city, sold a house and lot on Walnut street, to Jackson Davis for $750.00. It was the property of Carpenter & Brothers.

A proposition is now under consideration, to build another bridge across Licking River, at the foot of Pleasant street, in Cynthiana. We understand that a citizen of this city says he will give one thousand dollars toward building one. Shall we have it?

Wanted in exchange for Groceries all kinds of produce at Jett's.

We have a communication from a highly respectable farmer of Harrison county, on the subject of Rail road charges for transportation or freight. We will publish it next week.

D. W. Jett has a complete stock of Fancy Groceries at low prices.

The distillery of J. D. & W. L. more at Nicholasville, has been in operation for some weeks. We were shown a sample of their make, and we will not hesitate to assert that it was equal to the best whiskey made in Harrison. Messrs. Gills & W. L. more are reliable gentlemen, and are succeeding excellently with their new house.

Messrs. Curl, Veach & Magee have established their carpenter shop on Bridge street, near Main, where Mr. Graham earned on for several years. These gentlemen are enterprising and are going ahead gloriously. Mr. Williams, of Paris, Ky., has recently put up in their shop what is termed a "Rip Saw" and a "Sawmill," which in every particular a regular labor-saving machine, and which from all appearances gives these men an advantage in their business, not possessed by everybody. These machines are a new thing in Cynthiana—and with these we may say again that our people are becoming progressive.

It was Jett's the agent for White & Hunt's cigars—can supply the trade at factory prices—read and examine the stock.

It will be seen by an advertisement in another column that our old friend, John O. Day, is in the field again, and bidding for work in a legitimate and worthy style. Mr. Day has nearly finished his residence on Main street, and we might say right here, that it is an exceedingly respectable one, containing eight large and spacious rooms, and not an individual passes but remarks that it presents a splendid appearance. Mr. Day says that he is now ready to build another house just like the one he has had the enterprise to put up in Cynthiana, and any person or persons desiring his services in that line will call at his shop on Walnut street, where he will be happy to wait on them.

While on a visit to Covington we called to see Aile & Klumpp's cigar manufactory and wholesale tobacco dealers, 329 South street, between 4th and 5th, and we had the pleasure of indulging in the fragrance of one of their Havana cigars, and we say to the citizens of our vicinity, when at Covington, it would be to their interest to call on them before purchasing cigars and tobacco elsewhere. They are also agents for the finest Virginia tobacco.

The Ellison House, Covington, Ky., is now carried on by Mrs. Ellison and Mr. Jones. It is a splendid hotel, and is kept in a manner that will suit a Kentuckian. Those who desire a splendid fare at fair rates should go there.

It seems that on every Saturday night, a drunken spree must be had by not a few of the "bucks" of this town and vicinity—and when they have filled themselves up until whisky will run out of all the pores of their pickled carcasses, they then take the streets and commence to make night hideous with their yells and howls to such an extent that the Marshall of our city has been brought to the scene of the disturbance—and when he attempts to quell the rioters, he is halted with a half-dozen pistols stuck into his face. This is very fine fun in a law-abiding country, and speaks well for us as a people, and as a community we should sustain the rioters, because of their bravery and the fine display of chivalry. But we will sustain no such behavior, and it is the duty of the City Marshall to arrest and punish such men—even if it shall cost the shedding of blood or the loss of a life. Let us adhere to the laws in peace times at all hazards. Law officers will be sustained by good men everywhere. Then let them do their duty.

We take the following extract from one of the New York city papers: NEW YORK DISTILLERIES STOPPED.—It appears from official sources that all distilleries in New York have ceased running. There were forty-one in operation November 1. This is said to be the result of low tax on whisky, and for obvious reasons. Whisky made in New York city costs sixty cents per gallon and the taxes, including special tax, is sixty-three cents additional, or $1.23 per gallon. Whisky sells at a dollar in that city, so there is no margin for stealing. The trade belongs legitimately to the West, to which it will be confined hereafter.

Mr. James Colston killed a copperhead snake, on the 25th, inst., on the Farm of E. L. Hinchison, in this county, which measured four feet in length.

We learn that our friends, J. F. McGibben and J. M. S. Snell have been appointed administrators for the estate of John L. Shawhan, deceased, and the distillery belonging to Shawhan & Atkins will be run under the supervision of the administrators and Atkins, until the close of the season. Mr. Shawhan during his life time made contracts and sales of whisky. All the contracts and sales made by him will be filled according to contract, by his representatives.

A Mr. Smith, of Kentucky, is exhibiting a mammoth ox in Helena, Arkansas. The animal measures thirteen and a half feet in length, eleven feet four inches round the girth, sixteen and a half hands high, and weighs 4,545 pounds.

We regret to learn that the home of Mrs. Read & J. M. Snell, situated some three miles south of Cynthiana, was entirely destroyed by fire, together with all her furniture, clothing, bed clothing, &c. She will be remembered as the widow of Richard J. Snell, who was wantonly murdered by George Sadie, and was awarded an $100,000.

The holidays are now past, but still our friends expect and are willing to receive gifts. Married men, if you would like for your better half to meet you at night with a sweet kiss and smiling face and young lovers, if you want to receive a happy welcome and an encouraging smile, call on J. D. Moates, No. 338 Madison St., Covington, Ky., and select from his stock of Jewels, a nice present for your wife or sweet heart.

Dr. J. J. Ailair, of this county, is in need of help—he wants a white man and a white woman to work in the field and in the house. A man and wife would be acceptable.

Bridge street extended, is being improved, and the hill will be graded so that it will become passable. Progressiveness is the order of the day in Cynthiana.

Mr. C. A. Webster, of this city, has sold his handsome residence to T. V. Ashbrook, for $8,000—with 12 acres of ground.

A man named Phillip Moore, was arrested by Officer Baker, on Sunday evening last, for breaking into Mr. Herr's blacksmith shop. He was put in jail, but is out on bail.

SOMETHING EXTRAORDINARY.—A young man named Robert Montjoy, in the employment of Geo. Lemmon, Mayor of our city, made sixty barrels in one week. Twenty is considered a good week's work. Who can beat it?

Look this way! Coal! coal! I will sell by the cart loads 25 to 50 cents less than any coal dealer in Cynthiana, and at same rates to country trade, and furnish better coal than anybody. The circumstances in which I am placed gives me the advantage over any other dealer in the city. I mean what I say. Come and try me. Office at the Railroad Depot.

H. D. FRISBIE.

THE NEW FIRM!

THE TWO-WHEELED VELOCIPEDE!

PIKE STREET, Cynthiana.

THE undersigned have formed a partnership in the Merchant Tailoring Business, and feeling that we are capable and qualified to make every style of garment worn by gentlemen, take this means of informing our friends and the public generally, that we are now ready to receive and wait upon our customers, and upon all those who may favor us with their patronage. And now that we have thrown our banner to the breeze, with the expectation of adding our name, we most respectfully ask those our friends, who have us in their confidence and support heretofore, not to abandon us. We have brought on a splendid assortment of GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS, of every description, which is inferior to no stock in town, and which we propose to make up to suit our customers, in the best, most substantial, most fashionable, and at the same time at the cheapest rates possible. We are both practical tailors, and our hands will be the best workmen that the country affords. Gentlemen buying goods elsewhere will find it to their advantage to call on us, and we will be glad to continue the trade for Mr. J. H. Shawhan, as heretofore. Mr. Murray takes this opportunity to return his thanks to his friends for their past patronage, and would ask a continuance of the same.
